ALDO I. BELLO
2012 Humanitarian Award Recipient

The Humanitarian Award is given annually by Americans for Immigrant Justice (AI Justice) to an individual who has shown extraordinary compassion and who exemplifies the ethics of kindness, benevolence and sympathy to all human beings.

Aldo Bello is an award-winning documentary film director, television producer and co-owner of Mind & Media, Inc., a strategic communications and media company. Bello's latest feature-length documentary project is DREAM: An Immigration Story that tells the personal journey of an AI Justice client, Juan Gomez, and features the legislative history and struggle to pass the DREAM Act.

KIMBERLY GREEN, PH.D.
2012 Immigrant Voices Award Recipient

The Immigrant Voices Award is presented to an individual who has demonstrated through their career and service, a dedication to the principles of freedom, equality and justice and to upholding the basic human rights of immigrants.

An accomplished philanthropist, writer and documentary-filmmaker, Kimberly Green has led the Green Family Foundation (GFF) since 1997. Under her leadership, GFF has spearheaded a variety of initiatives that have immeasurably impacted the lives of thousands of people across the world and in her local Miami community.
